Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of some thing that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has not returned, although I am along hard way from a doctor. I am still in operation, now lost time. No trouble, I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure with the operation. Write me. Eugene M. Miller, Carpenter, 21 Madison Avenue, Manhattan, N. Y. Notes on my operations, and show it to any others who are ruptured. You can save life at least stop the misery of rupture and the horrors and dangers of an operation.—Ad.

ZEPPELIN RAIDS ON LONDON WILL NOT BE STOPPED

LONDON, Oct. 5—London will continue to be visited by Zeppelins despite the recent losses and the great improvement in the capital's air defenses. This opinion was expressed to the Associated Press by Earl of Derby who said:

"Raids will continue for the effect on the German people, who have been taught that Zeppelins, like submarines, would bring England to her knees. Hence the ridiculous communiques and newspaper articles in Germany representing that England was terrorized and London in flames. I will not say that London is the best defended of the allies' capitals, but I can assert that there has been a vast improvement which means that other Zeppelins will be brought down when they come again."

Lord Derby expressed the keenest satisfaction with the western campaign which, he declared, only needed good weather to show substantial progress and added:

"One of the most striking features of the present phase of the war is the notable decline in the accuracy of the official German reports which cover a considerable period. Now they are evidently written for home and neutral consumption; they are notoriously false in what they relate and strikingly significant in what they minimize or conceal. The best example of this is their delay in admitting the fall of Thiepval and Cambrai."

THIRTY-FOUR STATES TO ELECT GOVERNORS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—In thirty-four states a governor and all, or nearly all, the elective state officers are to be chosen in the elections which take place four weeks from next Tuesday.

The elections will differ noticeably from those of 1912 and 1914, inasmuch as the disappearance of the progressives, as an organized party leaves the republicans and the democrats to fight for the state offices as was the case before the birth of the so-called third party. The prohibition and socialist parties have named candidates for the principal offices in many of the states, and in some of the states there are several minor tickets in the field. In all of the states, however, it is regarded as a practical certainty that the new governors and other principal officers will be either democrats or republicans.

Following are the republican or democratic candidates for governor in the forty-four states where gubernatorial elections will be held:

Nebraska—Republican, Tom Campbell; democrat, George W. P. Hunt (incumbent).

Arkansas—Republican, Wallace Townsend; democrat, C. H. Brugh.

Colorado—Republican, George A. Carlson (incumbent); democrat, Julius G. Gunter.

Connecticut—Republican, Marcus H. Holcomb (incumbent); democrat, Morris B. Beardsley.

Delaware—Republican, John G. Townsend; democrat, James S. Hughes.

Florida—Republican, George A. Allen; democrat, W. V. Knott.

Idaho—Republican, D. W. Davis; democrat, Moses Alexander (incumbent).

Illinois—Republican, Frank O. Lowden; democrat, Edward F. Dunne (incumbent).

Indiana—Republican, James P. Goodrich; democrat, John A. M. Adair.

Iowa—Republican, W. L. Harding; democrat, E. T. Meredith.

Kansas—Republican, Arthur Capper (incumbent); democrat, W. C. Lansdon.

Massachusetts—Republican, Samuel W. McCall (incumbent); democrat, Frederick W. Mansfield.

Michigan—Republican, Albert E. Sleeper; democrat, Edwin F. Sweet.

Minnesota—Republican, John A. A. Burquist (incumbent); democrat, Cyrus M. King.

Missouri—Republican, Henry Lamm; democrat, Frederick D. Gardner.

Montana—Republican, Frank J. Edwards; democrat, Samuel V. Stewart (incumbent).

Nebraska—Republican, Abraham L. Sutton; democrat, Keith Neville.

New Hampshire—Republican, Henry W. Keyes; democrat, John C. Hutchins.

New Jersey—Republican, Walter E. Edge; democrat, H. Otto Wittman.

New Mexico—Republican, Holm O. Bursum; democrat, E. C. de Baca.

New York—Republican, Charles S. Whitman (incumbent); democrat, Samuel S. Seabury.

North Carolina—Republican, Frank A. Linney; democrat, T. W. Bickett.

North Dakota—Republican, Lynn Frazer; democrat, D. H. McArthur.

Ohio—Republican, Frank B. Willis (incumbent); democrat, James M. Cox.

Rhode Island—Republican, R. Livingston Beckman (incumbent); democrat, Addison P. Monroe.

South Carolina—Democrat, Richard L. Manning (incumbent).

South Dakota—Republican, Peter Norbeck; democrat, F. D. Morecom.

Tennessee—Republican, John W. Overall; democrat, Tom C. Rye (incumbent).

Texas—Republican, R. B. Creager; democrat, James E. Ferguson (incumbent).

Utah—Republican, Nephi Morris; democrat, Simon Bamberger.

Vermont—Republican, Horace F. Graham; democrat, William B. Mayo.

Washington—Republican, Henry McBride; democrat, Ernest Lister (incumbent).

West Virginia—Republican, Ira E. Robinson; democrat, John L. Cornell.

Wisconsin—Republican, Emmanuel L. Philipp (incumbent); democrat, Burt Williams.

Several Hundred Bonnie, New House Dresses In a Sale at $1.19

Once before we held a sale like this. To be accurate, it was in the summer, and its success was so great that we immediately fell to planning another. Our work and our plans have ripened into this event beginning today. It affords unbeatable values in house dresses. Our buying power and our outlet are responsible for the fact that they are unbeatable. We made it "interesting" for the manufacturer by taking large quantities—we got them at bedrock price and we have marked them at the slenderest of profit margins. That is why the price is $1.19 instead of $1.50, for you have bought such house dresses many a time at $1.50.

Hundreds and hundreds—three windows are full of them—a variety affording ample choice.

Gingham of the best quality and of best colors. Vest effects, pleated skirts, pockets and other pretty touches. There are all sizes.

Today's News from This Best Store for Girls

Gingham dresses at $1.25 in four sensible but very charming styles. Stripes, checks and plain colors in pinks and blues. They are as washable as sheeting. Ages 7 to 14.

Girls' dresses at $1.95 are made interesting by dainty trimmings at the collars and cuffs. Plaids and stripes in gingham and cambric.

At $2.50 there are dresses with the regulation waistline, belts and pockets. Handsome Scotch plaids in variety.

These silk gingham dresses at $1.50 are beautiful. Bright bonnie colors in checks. There are coat styles and others and others—Third Floor.

Children's Furs and Coats, also on the Third Floor.

Special—Consumers' Electric Irons At $1.95

A shipment of these came the other day. A large shipment, but not any too many in the light of what follows. They are the well-known "Consumers' Electric Irons"—practical, efficient, guaranteed. When this lot is gone we shall not be in a position to sell them at $1.95, because the maker's contract to use the inventions in the "Consumers' Iron" has expired, and if it is renewed it will be done at a higher price—a price making the cost to you about $2.50. You may take that at what it is worth. Here are the irons at $1.95—complete with attachments and cord.
